A modern living room interior featuring a large flat-screen TV mounted on a light-colored wall. Below the TV is a white console with two small speakers. A large, tufted beige sofa with gold-colored piping and cushions is positioned in front of a large window with sheer white curtains. A glass-topped coffee table with a gold-colored metal base is in the foreground. The room has a high ceiling with a chandelier and recessed lighting. The overall color palette is neutral with gold accents. There are several semi-transparent colored rectangles overlaid on the image: a blue rectangle in the top left, a yellow rectangle in the top right, an orange rectangle in the center, a blue rectangle on the right, and a yellow rectangle in the bottom left.
