

This architectural floor plan shows a rectangular building layout. A central vertical corridor, indicated by a dashed line, divides the space into two symmetrical halves. On either side of the corridor, there are four rows of rooms. Each row consists of a large room on the outer edge and a smaller room or office space adjacent to the corridor. The rooms are labeled with numbers and names, such as '101', '102', '103', '104', '105', '106', '107', '108', '109', '110', '111', '112', '113', '114', '115', '116', '117', '118', '119', '120', '121', '122', '123', '124', '125', '126', '127', '128', '129', '130', '131', '132', '133', '134', '135', '136', '137', '138', '139', '140', '141', '142', '143', '144', '145', '146', '147', '148', '149', '150', '151', '152', '153', '154', '155', '156', '157', '158', '159', '160', '161', '162', '163', '164', '165', '166', '167', '168', '169', '170', '171', '172', '173', '174', '175', '176', '177', '178', '179', '180', '181', '182', '183', '184', '185', '186', '187', '188', '189', '190', '191', '192', '193', '194', '195', '196', '197', '198', '199', '200'. The plan also shows a central entrance area with a staircase and a small office space. The building is surrounded by a parking lot with several cars parked. The plan is drawn in a simple line-art style with a grid background.
